EN MARCHE THE MOVEMENT OF EMMANUEL MACRON CHANGE THE NAME & EVOLVE A PARTY

BECOMES "REPUBLIQUE EN MARCHE"

Paris, Washington DC, 12.05.2017, 18:08 Time

USPA NEWS - En Marche , the movement founded by president-elect Emmanuel Macron, renamed recently "Le Republique en marche" (Menas The republic is in movement) and evolves towards centrist political party, a brand new "Social Liberal" party, further the election to Emmanuel Macron the founder.

Emmanuel Macron resigned Monday from his post as president of the movement founded a year ago. He was succeeded by Catherine Barbaroux, who had hitherto been the delegate of En marche! Immediately following his victory in the presidential election, Emmanuel Macron resigned, on Monday, May 8, from his position as president of En marche!. It is Catherine Barbaroux - formerly delegate of the movement - who becomes interim president, announced late Monday afternoon, the secretary general of the movement, Richard Ferrand, during a press conference.

CATHERINE BARBAROUX BECOMES PRESIDENT OF THE CENTRIST PARTY "REPUBLIQUE EN MARCHE"

Catherine Barbaroux was General Delegate for Employment and Vocational Training at the Ministry of Labor under Martine Aubry, Elisabeth Guigou, François Fillon and Jean-Louis Borloo between 1997 and 2005.

She was also President of Adie (Association For the right to economic initiative), pioneer in microcredit between 2011 and 2016. From now on, she will preside over the transformation of En marche!, Which will be renamed "La République en marche", announced Richard Ferrand during this press conference. "A founding congress will be held before July 15," he said. The secretary general of the movement then raised the question of the parliamentary elections, which will take place on 11 and 18 June. The 577 candidates of En marche! Will be unveiled by Thursday at noon, he said. Ferrand said all candidates had already been retained by the party's nomination commission, but there are still "checks to be made". For now, only fourteen names are known. Source Le Monde
