On October 24, 2016 was given to the Press the opportunity to discover the 'CAVES DU LOUVRE', a unique venue in central PARIS. This former Royal Wine Cellar was fully renovated for 2 years to create an attraction meant to enchant and inspire. It was established by King Louis XV's sommelier.

The various rooms you can enjoy exploring are :

- The Winery : barrels containing wines made from 15 different grape varieties.
- The Private Tasting Room : for a tasting, a meeting or a special dinner.
- The Terroirs Room : Dedicated to the sense of touch, to learn about the importance of the soil in wine.
- The Aromas Room : In a nest of wood, stimulation of the olfactory sense.
- The lab : With its spectacular table, this is where winemaking workshops operate.
- The Bottling Room : With its little well and beautiful vaults, this room is where guests get to bottle their wine.
- The Labels Room : Lights, videos, and color games will stimulate and enchant the eyes.
- The Tasting Bar

All this enable to discover French wine in a fun and informative Way !
